

AZ Daily Sun Web/JLS

Web journalist apprentice

Get in on the ground level of honing web journalism skills at the Arizona Daily Sun. You'll get to report and produce news video reports for the web site, write and post breaking news to the web site, assist with "tagging" stories and use other multimedia tools to enhance the Daily Sun's news coverage on the web site. We're looking for a journalism student with basic skills in multimedia reporting.
