

Documentary Filmmaking/EMF

Martin-Springer Institute

Filmmaking opportunity

Interns will design, film and edit a short digital film on the founding of the Institute. This film will be on the Martin-Springer website. The making of the film will involve weaving in archival photos, as well as interviewing with the Institute founders.

Hours flexible; stipend possible.

Skills needed

Filmmaking experience, oral history skills, some background or willingness to learn about the Holocaust.

Contact Gretchen Mcallister, Martin-Springer Institute 523-5029