

PR Intern to assist Navajo painter's art career

An educational art management opportunity exists for a Northern Arizona University student interested in an intern position with renowned artist Shonto Begay. Known for his award-winning paintings that depict both traditional and modern Navajo life, Shonto also publishes books and maintains a busy speaking engagement.

Job description: research and write grant proposals for cultural projects, manage paperwork and art show participation, maintain public relations, social networking and correspondence upkeep.

Desired skills: strong organizational skills, ability to work independently, good computer, writing, and photography skills, sense of humor, knowledge of the art world, and desire to experience the art world and the Navajo culture.

Hours needed: 5 – 10 hours a week (open)

Contact Shonto Begay at shonto_begay@msn.com or 928/699-7214 or Frances.Riemer@nau.edu or 928/523-0352.