

SBS Student Travel Support Program 2009-2010
College of Social and Behavioral Sciences

The Office of the Dean of the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences provides funding for individual students or groups of students to represent Northern Arizona University at regional, national, or international conferences, given the availability of funding.

Eligibility: To be eligible for consideration, the student must be enrolled at NAU in a program in SBS and in good academic standing at the time of the application and travel. Both undergraduate and graduate students are eligible. Students are eligible for one travel award per academic year. Awards are typically in the $100 - $250 range, given the availability of funding.

Application Process: Students must complete the SBS Student Travel Application for Dean's Funding, as well as obtain pertinent department information and signatures, and provide a narrative of what the travel will entail, and the expected outcomes. Applications can be obtained in the dean's office, academic departments, or online at <http://home.nau.edu/sbs/staffforms.asp>. Applications must be received no later than 5:00 PM Friday, September 25, 2009 or 5:00 PM Friday February 5, 2010. Funding can be encumbered based on the contingency that a submission will be accepted.

Deliver completed application and letter to: Office of the SBS Dean, Attention: Zoe Lonetti, SBS 200. Students should include proof of acceptance/invitation from the sponsoring organization.

Award Conditions:

Available funding for the following in order of priority:

1. Travel for an individual student or student group to present their scholarly or creative work at a regional, national or international professional conference.
2. Travel for an individual student or student group to accept an award from a professional organization or academic institution.
3. Travel for an individual student or student group to attend academic competitions at a regional, national or international level.

Available funding may only be used to cover the following costs:

- Transportation to and from the conference
- Lodging (but not food)
- Conference registration fees

Award Follow-up: Upon completion of the travel, the awarded student or group of students sends a 1-page memo to the Office of the Dean (c/o Zoe Lonetti) summarizing the trip supported by the Travel Award.
