Becoming Involved with the Flagstaff Community

Organizations and Affiliations

City of Flagstaff Commissions – are community participation programs that allow local residents the opportunity to take part in City government including public art, heritage preservation, and many other issues impacting residents.

Community Agriculture Project – is a city project promoting locally grown foods in various Flagstaff communities. The City of Flagstaff collaborates with Flagstaff Foodlink to manage and maintain community agriculture on City owned property.

How to Become Involved: Contact Flagstaff Foodlink: https://www.facebook.com/FlagstaffFoodlink

Flagstaff Chamber of Commerce – is an independent, non-profit organization financed by its members to promote businesses and advocate on their behalf. Flagstaff Chamber of Commerce promotes the local Flagstaff community and economy.

How to Become Involved: Membership/Membership renewal: http://business.flagstaffchamber.com/member/NewMemberApp/

Flagstaff Community Foundation – is one of the affiliate systems within the Arizona Community Foundation that compiles charitable funds for the community by the community. Donor gifts stay in Flagstaff and support local community needs and purposes.

How to Become Involved: Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/AZFoundation

Flagstaff CSA and Local Market – are two organizations that allow local people the opportunity to support local farmers by buying and eating their produce. This market offers an array of vegetables and foods grown and produced by local farmers for residents on a contractual basis.

Website: http://flagcsa.com/

Flagstaff Family Food Center – provides Flagstaff residents with hot meals and assists children with homework, reading, and social skills. FFFC also compiles emergency and shower kits.

For more information about the Action Research Teams, go to http://www2.nau.edu/crasts-p/wordpress/
Research on Action
Action Research Team
Celeste Tabares

How to Become Involved:
Volunteer: http://www.hotfood.org/subjects/volunteers/volunteers.htm
Donate: http://www.hotfood.org/subjects/donations/donations.htm
Website: http://www.hotfood.org/index.htm

United Way – is a local nonprofit organization that promotes education, income, and health for members of the community. They partner with various community resources to promote the common good.

How to Become Involved:
Donate: http://www.nazunitedway.org/give.html
Advocate: http://www.nazunitedway.org/advocate.html
Volunteer: http://www.nazunitedway.org/volunteer.html

December Community Activities

Winter Wonderland: Join Flagstaff Recreation Services from 5 to 7pm on December 6 in Heritage Square and Wheeler Park in Downtown Flagstaff for an appearance by Santa, crafts, lights, and music

First Friday Artwalk: local art is featured in Downtown Flagstaff on the evening of December 6, 2013

Mingle Bells Bash: Flagstaff Chamber of Commerce Holiday Networking Mixer on December 12, 2013 from 5:30 to 8 pm at Jakes on the Green in Continental. $15 charge for members, $25 charge for prospective members (members of the Flagstaff Chamber of Commerce)

Children’s Chorale Free Holiday Concert: on Friday, December 13 at 7:30 pm at Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary Chapel

The Nutcracker Suite on Modern Bare Feet: a 21st century interpretation of the holiday classic at 7:30 to 9pm at the Clifford E. White Theater on December 13 and 14 ($16 adults/$12 children)

Vora Financial/Flagstaff Chamber of Commerce Holiday Lights Parade: December 14, 2013 from 6 to 7:30 pm taking place in Downtown Flagstaff

The Great Pinecone Drop: December 31 all day at the Weatherford Hotel in Downtown Flagstaff

Resources for Ongoing Community Activities

Arizona Daily Sun Community Calendar: visit http://azdailysun.com/calendar/ for a calendar of upcoming events and activities in the Flagstaff community