Ways to Get Involved

Public Campaign - is a non-profit, non-partisan group located in Washington D.C. whose main objective is to reduce the influence of special interest spending in American politics. Their broad range of organizations, including community groups across the United States work together to fight for national organizations whose party members are not fairly represented under the present campaign finance system.

Contact Information: Website: http://www.publicampaign.org/
Email: info@publicampaign.org
Telephone: (202) 640-5600

Americans for Prosperity - is a conservative political advocacy group based in Virginia with chapters across the United States. They are an organization of grassroots leaders who engage citizens in the name of limited government and free markets on the local, state, and federal levels. At their website you can donate to the organization, become a member, and become engaged in state and national actions.

Contact Information: National Website: http://americansforprosperity.org/
Arizona Chapter: http://americansforprosperity.org/arizona/
Telephone: (602) 478-0146

Common Cause - is a non-profit, non-partisan advocacy organization based in Washington, D.C. They are dedicated to restoring the core values of American democracy, reinventing an open, honest and accountable government that serves the public interest, and empowering ordinary people to make their voices heard in the political process. Visit their website to learn about the issues they address, make a donation, and join their mailing list.

Contact Information: National Website: http://www.commoncause.org/
Telephone: (202) 833-1200

Arizona Clean Elections - is an Arizona State Commission created by the Citizens Clean Election Act which passed in 1998. The Commission seeks to improve the integrity of Arizona state government and promote public confidence in the Arizona political. Visit their website to make donations to candidates, become involved in their programs, and learn about the commissioners who lead the organization.

Contact Information: Website: http://www.azcleanelections.gov/
Email: ccec@azcleanelections.gov
Telephone: (602) 364-3477

*For more information about the Action Research Teams, go to http://www2.nau.edu/craftsp/wordpress/
Citizens United - is an organization based in Washington, D.C. that advocates for “traditional American values” such as limited government, freedom of enterprise, strong families, and national security. They use a wide variety of methods to reach their vision including education, advocacy, and grassroots organization. Visit their website to become a member, make a donation, and learn about the issues they address.

Contact Information:
Website: http://citizensunited.org/
Email: info@citizensunited.org
Telephone: (202) 547-5420

Americans for Campaign Reform - is an advocacy group based in Washington, D.C. whose main focus is on the public funding of American politics. They are a community of citizens who believe passionately that public funding is the single most critical long-term public policy issue our nation faces. They believe that candidates should be elected upon their qualifications, their character, and their abilities. At their website you can learn more about their work, make a donation, or become a member.

Contact Information:
Website: http://www.acrreform.org/
Telephone: (202) 503-1240

Equality Arizona - is an advocacy group that functions on the state and local levels to preserve the rights and well-being of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender people in Arizona. The other issues that Equality Arizona fights for are the Respect for Marriage Act as well as adoption rights and the Arizona Safe Schools Act.

Contact Information:
Website: http://equalityarizona.org/
Email: info@equalityarizona.org
Telephone: (602) 558-8876

The Arizona We Want - is a non-profit organization located in Phoenix, Arizona who conduct studies that pertain to issues involving citizen engagement in the state. They are dedicated to shaping Arizona's future through an action-oriented agenda that is focused on topics important to the state. The organization aims to elect leaders who understand complex issues and will work across party lines when needed. Visit their website to see reports of the studies they have conducted, get involved in community programs, and learn more about the Center for the future of Arizona in Phoenix.

Contact Information:
Website: http://www.thearizonawewant.org/
Email: info@thearizonawewant.org
Telephone: (602) 496-1360
Human Rights Campaign - The Human Rights Campaign is the largest civil rights organization in America. They aim to achieve equality for lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender individuals in America. The organization is dedicated to ending discrimination against people of the LBGT community and achieve equality for all. They also arrange grassroots actions in many communities and educate the public about LBGT issues. Visit their website to learn more about the campaign, become a member, or find local volunteer opportunities.

Contact Information: Website: http://www.hrc.org/
Telephone: (202) 628-4160