Part of the mission of the IHD is to create and expand opportunities for student training. The following categories will be used to describe trainees at the IHD:

Certificate Trainees: Any student enrolled in an IHD certificate program

Graduate Assistants: Students whose primary role is to assist with project activities

Dissertation/Thesis: Any student whose thesis or dissertation project is directly related to an IHD project or initiative or IHD is involved in their project as consultants or committee members.

Other Student Training: Student completing practicums or internships or any other training. This includes fieldwork placements for students (308 or 608).

Trainees will be classified as follows for reporting purposes:

- Long-Term: 300 or more hours
- Intermediate: Less than 300 hours and more than 50 hours
- Short-Term: 50 hours or less
