CLIMBING WALL RULES AND REGULATIONS

General
The climbing wall’s general rules and regulations are as follows:
- Always check in at the climbing wall desk prior to using the facility.
- Outdoor Adventures belay certification is required to belay.
- Only climbing equipment and water bottles are allowed in the gym area.
- Shirt and shoes are required at all times.
- Only climbing shoes are allowed on the wall.
- Keep fingers out of bolt hangers and quick draws.
- If you have a medical condition that may limit or affect your or others’ participation in this activity, like heart conditions, injuries, or epilepsy, please consult your doctor to determine if this activity is right for you.
- Women who are pregnant are not permitted to climb and individuals with an uncontrolled condition which causes loss of consciousness are not permitted to belay at this facility.

Bouldering-specific
The following are the climbing wall’s bouldering-specific rules and regulations:
- Spotting and use of crash pads is highly recommended.
- Keep hands below the bouldering line.
- Topping-out on the bouldering cave is not permitted.

Yield wall space to roped climbers.