Past Due Parent: Suggested Attire

Dear Parent,

Do you find yourself approaching a special occasion and thinking about the perfect look for your child? We know the days are numbered and the worry of “What will they wear?” never leaves the mind. It can be hard to determine the right attire for any event, and we’re here to make it easier for you.

For a full list of important dates, visit the Registrar's Calendar online. Keep track of deadlines for major events such as holidays, exams, and final projects to help your student stay organized. If you're looking for other ways to help your student succeed, check out the Spring Break schedule for Career Exploration Workshops and Mock Interviews. These events provide valuable experience for students as they prepare for their future careers.

Best wishes,
