GC 599
Research and Scholarly Integrity

1-credit Course
Fall 2012
Tuesdays, 2:50 - 3:55pm
Ashurst Bldg. #11, Room A109
Course # 8815
Taught by
Dr. Nanda Gudderra, Associate Vice President, Office of Vice President of Research and
Dr. Ramona Mellott, Dean of the Graduate College
This course is open to all students engaged in research, scholarship and collaborative activities at NAU.

Key Components:
• Philosophical framework in research and scholarly integrity for long term usefulness
• Creation of a strong foundation in ethics and research/scholarly integrity
• Introduction to ethical issues affecting research and scholarship
• Case studies in research misconduct
• Federal policies and regulations
• Institutional and professional responsibilities, code of conduct, and the impact of emerging technologies and globalization
• Students will be able to recognize and address issues in responsible conduct of research and scholarship